ACO Wildlife: Price List 2

ACO. The future of drainage.

Throughout the world ACO branded drainage and surface water management systems are recognised for their innovative design, high quality manufacture, environmental excellence and industry leading performance.

Protection and enhancement for wildlife

Structures to assist declining wild animal populations in our built environment have never been so important for wildlife conservation. Linking habitats with safe passages and secure places for animals to hide, rest and even to breed, requires well thought-out purpose-designed products. New regulations are changing landscapes, and ACO's designs work with concepts such as sustainable drainage systems (SuDS) to offer new solutions that comply with new legislation and guidelines. Planning, consultation, manufacture and system monitoring are the foundations for cost effective, long lasting and successful animal protection and habitat enhancement systems.

ACO Wildlife

Small animals occupy a wide range of habitats which are often divided by roads. Some animals, in particular amphibians, may undertake seasonal migration between land habitats and their vital spawning grounds. Animals can be drawn to roads and move slowly as they cross them, so many may be killed by passing traffic.

In addition to the danger to animals there are also risks to drivers and passengers if vehicles swerve to avoid animals on the road. Public safety and biodiversity protection both benefit from the use of ACO Wildlife systems.

ACO Wildlife systems

The first ACO tunnel and fence systems were installed in Europe and North America in 1987, and since then many countries have adopted them. ACO has worked with environmental specialists, including significant investment in an intensive five-year period of research and development, to upgrade and extend the range of Wildlife Fencing and Tunnel systems.

ACO has also extended the Wildlife range with a new Bat Box and a series of Refuges to add to the Bird Nest Box and such innovative products as the Wildlife Kerb featured in this price list.

Guide Wall and Climate Tunnel.

ACO's Guide Wall and Climate Tunnel systems have been designed for projects where biodiversity is an important consideration. The systems ensure the well being of small animals, especially during the migration season.

Guide Wall

The ACO Guide Wall design prevents all small animals from reaching the roadway or other danger areas, and provides them with a firm, consistent floor area clear of vegetation that they can travel along unhindered. Two barriers on the front face prevent animals and reptiles from climbing up into the danger area.

In addition to these benefits, the Guide Wall does not always need footings as it can be bedded on compacted gravel or even natural earth if the conditions are suitable. It can also act as a retaining wall, being able to support an embankment of up to 40° without being secured additionally during installation

For more information on this range please see page 7.

Climate Tunnels

Once animals have made their way along the Guide Wall they are guided to the ACO Climate Tunnel which leads them safely beneath the road surface. The Climate Tunnel has two forms, slotted or solid top.

The slotted tunnel is installed flush with the surface, the effect of the slots being to equalise ambient temperatures and humidity within and outside the tunnel, and to allow light to enter. In wet weather the slots allow rain into the tunnel, keeping the floor moist.

The solid top tunnel is installed either below the surface, if a deeper installation is required, or at surface level if slots are not required, for instance in a pavement or cycleway.

For more information on this range please see page 8.

The Guide Wall is connected to the Climate Tunnel by a Tunnel Entrance unit, (page 9). The Climate Stilt Tunnel (page 10) allows construction of a slotted surface-level tunnel with the same floor level as the entrance unit.

7. PRICES

(a) Except where agreed in writing to the contrary, all prices quoted by the Company exclude carriage from the warehouse which shall be charged in addition.

(b) All prices are subject to revision at any time (including after the Company has acknowledged the Customer's order) in the event of any increase in cost caused by circumstances beyond the Company's control and the Company reserves the right to charge such revised prices for Goods and/or Services affected by the increase and remaining to be delivered.

(c) The Customer shall be liable for extra charges required as a result of its instructions, lack of instructions, the inaccuracy of any Input Material or any other cause attributable to the Customer.

8. PAYMENT

(a) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, prices quoted are net of tax, which shall be payable in addition and:

(i) payment for Goods and/or Services within the United Kingdom shall be made on the last day of the month following the month in which the Company's invoice is dated. Time for payment shall be of the essence.

(ii) payment for Goods and/or Services outside the United Kingdom shall be made by irrevocable letter of credit deposited with a London Bank approved by the Company upon presentation of shipping documents or if the Company is unable by reason of the Customer's instructions or lack of instructions to ship Goods when ready, upon notification to the Customer that the Goods are ready for shipment.

(b) In the event of any delay in payment the Company shall be entitled to charge interest at 4% over Bank of England minimum lending rate from time to time, accruing on a daily basis until payment is made, whether before or after any judgment. During any such period of default and at any time when the Company shall have reasonable grounds for doubting that payment will be made on the due date the Company shall be entitled to withhold deliveries on all contracts with the Customer without prejudice to its right to payment for Goods and Services delivered and for work undertaken and expenses incurred in connection with undelivered Goods and/or Services which shall become immediately due and payable on demand.

(c) The Buyer shall make all payments due under the Contract without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise.

9. TERMINATION AND CANCELLATION

- (a) Either party may (without limiting any other remedy) at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the other if the other commits any material breach of these Conditions and (if capable of remedy) fails to remedy the breach within 30 days after being required by written notice to do so, or if the other goes into liquidation, or (in the case of an individual or firm) becomes bankrupt, makes a voluntary arrangement with his or its creditors or has a receiver or administrator appointed.
- (b) No order for Goods or Services which has been accepted by the Company may be cancelled by the Customer except with the agreement in writing of the Company and on terms that the Customer shall indemnify the Company in full against all loss (including loss of profit), costs (including the cost of all labour and materials used), damages, charges and expenses incurred by the Seller as a result of cancellation.

10. DELIVERY DATES

Delivery dates are estimated only and not guaranteed and are not of the essence. The Company will endeavour to meet the Customer's delivery requirements but shall not be liable for any loss or damage whether direct, indirect, consequential or otherwise (all of which terms include, without limitation, loss of profits, loss of business, depletion of goodwill and like loss) caused by the delay in delivery. Any liability of the Company for non-delivery of the Goods and/or Services shall be limited to replacing the Goods and/or Services within a reasonable time or issuing a credit note at the pro-rata Contract rate against any invoice raised for such Goods and/or Services.

11. TITLE

The Company shall retain title to Goods until payment is made in full in cleared funds in respect of all Contracts. This provision shall not prevent the Customer from selling the Goods for full consideration or embodying them in any construction or apparatus in the normal course of business but in such event (to the extent of its indebtedness to the Company in respect of Goods) it shall act as trustee for the Company of the proceeds of sale or contract price and shall at the Company's request assign the right to receive the same to the Company. The Company's failure to enforce such rights in any case shall not affect its rights in any other case. Without prejudice to the above, until payment is made in full the Customer shall store the Goods (at no cost to the Company) separately from all other goods of the Customer or any third party in such a way that they remain readily identifiable as the Company's property and the Customer grants the Company and its agents an irrevocable licence at any time to enter any premises where the Goods are or may be stored in order to inspect them, or, where the Customer's right to possession has terminated, to recover them.

12. RISK

Risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on delivery or immediately prior to off-loading from the delivery vehicle where the Customer undertakes the off-loading or immediately after loading a Customer's vehicle at our premises. If the Customer fails to take delivery or has not provided appropriate instructions, documents or authorisations, risk will pass when delivery is tendered.

13. DELIVERY

If the Company has agreed to deliver the Goods and the Customer shall fail to give proper delivery instructions or to accept delivery as aforesaid it shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Company as a result of such failure (including without limitation storage and insurance) which shall become immediately due and payable on demand but such liability shall not affect its obligation to purchase the Goods or the right of the Company to damages for breach of such obligation.
- (c) Where the Goods and/or Services are to be delivered in installments, each delivery shall constitute a separate contract and failure by the Company to deliver any one or more of the installments in accordance with these Conditions or any claim by the Customer in respect of any one or more installments shall not entitle the Customer to treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated.

14. DAMAGE TO GOODS IN TRANSIT

- (a) The Company shall have no liability in respect of Goods lost or damaged in transit unless the Customer or its agent notes such loss or damage on the delivery receipt and gives notice thereof in writing to the Company and the carrier within three days of delivery or such shorter period as may be required by the carrier's conditions of carriage or in the case of a whole consignment failing to arrive gives notice thereof in writing to the Company within three days of receipt of the Company's invoice or despatch note.

16. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- (a) Except as expressly provided in these Conditions, the Company shall not be liable to the Customer by reason of any representation, or any implied warranty, condition or other term, or any duty at common law, or under the express terms of the Contract, for any loss of profit or any indirect, special or consequential loss, damage, costs, expenses or other claims (whether caused by the negligence of the Company, its servants or agents or otherwise) which arise out of or in connection with the provision of the Goods and/or Services or their use by the Customer, and the entire liability of the Company under or in connection with the Contract shall not exceed the amount of the Company's charges for the provision of the Goods and/or Services, except as expressly provided in these Conditions of Sale.

18. THIRD PARTIES

- (a) Where the Customer is selling on the Goods to others it agrees to pass to those others full and accurate information supplied by the Company concerning the Goods, including without limitation product information, specification, advice as to usage and details of all exclusions and limitations.
- (b) The parties do not intend that any term of the Contract will be enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person that is not a party to it.

19. FORCE MAJEURE

The Company will not be liable for any loss or damage sustained by the Customer by reason of act of God, war, riot, fire, strike, lock-out, governmental control or regulation, abnormal weather conditions, accident, breakdown or any other circumstances beyond the Company's control.
